The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that: Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Mark Thomas Ellis, is hereby committed on the Single-Count Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a term of six (6) months.

USA vs. Mark Thomas EllisDocket No.: CR 09-1211 TJH

The drug testing condition mandated by statute is suspended based on the Court's determination that the defendant poses a low risk of future substance abuse.

It is ordered that defendant pay to the United States a special assessment of $100.00, which is due immediately. All fines are waived, as it is found that the defendant does not have the ability to pay a fine in addition to restitution.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay restitution in the total amount of $725,956 pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3663 to victims as set forth in a separate victim list prepared by the probation office, which this Court adopts and which reflects the court's determination of the amount of restitution due to each victim. The victim list, which shall be forwarded to the fiscal section of the clerk's office, shall remain confidential to protect the privacy interests of the victim.

Restitution shall be due during the period of imprisonment, at the rate of not less than $25.00 per quarter, and pursuant to the Bureau of Prisons' Inmate Financial Responsibility Program. If any amount of the restitution remains unpaid after release from custody, nominal monthly payments of at least 10 % of defendant's gross monthly income, but not less than $100, shall be made, whichever is greater, during the period of supervised release, and shall begin 30 days after the commencement of supervision. Nominal restitution payments are ordered as the court finds that the defendant's economic circumstances do not allow for either immediate or future payment of the amount ordered.

The defendant shall comply with special conditions pursuant to General Order 01-05.

It is further ordered that the defendant surrender himself to the institution designated by the Bureau of Prison on or before 12 noon on August 21, 2010. In the absence of such designation, the defendant shall report on or before the same date and time, to the United States Marshal located at:

Roybal Federal Building
255 East Temple Street
Los Angeles, California 900112

The Court informs the defendant of his right to appeal.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
